“SHRED IT” EVENT BENEFITS HARVEST FOR HUNGER 2014

ASHTABULA, OH (May, 2014) – The Huffman-Mayer Wealth Management Group of Wells Fargo Advisors sponsored their annual “Shred It” event on Saturday, May 17th at their office at 3705 State Road, Ashtabula, Ohio.

Every year since 2010, the firm has held this event at its offices in order to give the community a safe and secure way of disposing of their tax and other personal documents. The event includes a mobile shredding service and assorted food and drink. There is no charge for the shredding service, which is paid for by Huffman-Mayer Wealth Management, but attendees are asked to consider making a donation to Harvest for Hunger in lieu of paying for the service. All donations will benefit local families in need.

Cleveland Foodbank’s Harvest for Hunger 2014 is a very important campaign. Unfortunately, the number of people turning to hunger centers for emergency food continues to rise. Harvest for Hunger is an important source of support for hunger centers. Because they are able to purchase food at a reduced price, cash and check contributions are preferred. A one dollar donation to Harvest for Hunger can purchase enough food to provide a hungry family with up to four nutritious meals.

In 2014, the event raised over $2,000 in donations from the over 50 people in attendance. “Once again this year, we were reminded of what a generous community we live and work in.” says James E. Mayer, Jr., Senior Vice President-Investments. All of these funds will be donated to the Harvest for Hunger campaign. The Huffman-Mayer Wealth Management Group would like to thank everyone who contributed their time and money to this fantastic cause. If you would like additional information about the “Shred It” event, please call the Wells Fargo Advisors office at (440) 992-1515.
